

GORDON PEAKE

---

27 Ballytrustan Road, Downpatrick, Down, BT30 7AQ

07968 122173

gordon_peake@yahoo.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Department for International Development, London

August

2006 - present

Consultant

- Conceptualized research project on monitoring and evaluation behalf of DFID and OECD
- Facilitated experts' workshop and writing background documentation

Woodrow Wilson School, Princeton University, NJ

September 2005-

June 2006

Visiting Instructor in Public and International Affairs

- Designed course on police reform and post-conflict peacebuilding
- Led student visit to Timor-Leste
- Worked to ensure that students' presented findings at United Nations headquarters; work received official commendation from United Nations Department of Peacekeeping Operations
- Supervised undergraduate theses, general academic management; and experience in computer-based learning

International Peace Academy, New York, NY

January 2004 - March 2006

Associate, Security and Development

- Conceptualized and led research project on security sector reform and peacekeeping; edited volume from project forthcoming
- Managed research projects on conflict management in South Pacific and private security companies
- Lectured widely on peace and conflict including University of Queensland, West Point, NY, Austrian Military Academy, and OECD/DAC (Accra, Ghana)
- Wrote special reports and conference papers on peace and conflict; articles published in recognized academic journals including International Peacekeeping and Conflict, Security and Development

United Nations Development Program, Kosovo

November 2003 - January 2004

Consultant

- Designed and helped implement attitudinal survey probing attitudes to police reform

Saferworld, London
November 2003 Consultant

August 2002-

- Researched and authored comprehensive report examining international police reform efforts in Balkans
- Helped research and design community policing program in Albania

INCORE, University of Ulster, Derry/Londonderry
May 2003

May 2002-

Research Associate

- Lead researcher at project examining political leadership in divided societies
- Carried out original research in Afghanistan, Kosovo and Sierra Leone
- Presented findings at leading universities in USA and UK

EDUCATION

University of Oxford, St Antony's College,

Nov 2003

D.Phil Politics and International Relations

- Thesis topic: The Politics of International Assistance to the Police in Kosovo and the Palestinian Territories

University of Oxford, St. Antony's College

June 1998

M.Phil Modern Middle Eastern Studies

Queen's University, Belfast

June 1996

LL.B. Law with Politics

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

BOOK

Gordon Peake, Eric Scheye and Alice Hills eds. Managing Insecurity: Field Experiences of Security Sector Reform London: Taylor and Francis 2006

SELECT ARTICLES

"Security Sector Reform in Sierra Leone" in Peake, Scheye and Hills eds. 2006

"Power Sharing in a Police Car: The Intractable Difficulties of Police Reform" a chapter in Sid Noel (ed) From Power Sharing to Democracy: Post Conflict Institutions in Divided Societies London: Ithica Press 2005

"Peacebuilding and the International Deployment Group in the Solomon Islands" International Peacekeeping Winter 2005

"Their Reports are not Read and Their Recommendations are Resisted" Police Practice and Research Winter 2006

"Arresting Insecurity: Time for a New Generation of Security Sector Reform Policy and Practice" Conflict, Security and Development Autumn 2005

"Community-based Policing: Philosophies and Guidelines for Implementation" (co-authored)

International Peace Academy 2004

"Strengthening the Security Development Nexus" (co-authored) International Peace Academy 2004

"Policing the Peace: Police Reform Experiences in Kosovo, Southern Serbia and Macedonia" London: Saferworld 2004

"The Philosophies and Principles of Community-Based Policing" UNDP, November 2003

"From Warlords to Peacelords? Political Leadership in Afghanistan" Journal of International Affairs Spring 2003